Q. My husband and I are huge fans of the great Turkish cooking at Ayse's Courtyard Cafe on Plymouth Road. One thing we never fail to order with every meal is a bowl of Ayse's delicious red lentil soup. Any chance Ayse would share the recipe with some of her devoted diners? Thanks.

A. You will have to patronize Ayse for her delicious soup, which she makes from scratch there. While not the soup served at Ayse's, this is a satisfying blend of the favorite flavors of the Middle East and North Africa.
